

Earth Day Events in Dana Point

There are a number of events this upcoming weekend in celebration of Earth Day. On Saturday, April 20, there is a:

Earth Day “Beach, Creek & Park Clean-up” at Doheny State Beach from 9-11. Meet at the Lifeguards headquarters & let the entrance guard know you are volunteering. No registration required.

Monarch Bay Plaza is sponsoring a Free Community Earth Day “Shred” Event in the Monarch Bay Plaza parking lot at the corner of PCH and Crown Valley Parkway from 9-2pm. You can bring your documents to be securely shredded & recycled by a licensed/bonded shredder. Certificate of destruction available.

The Ritz Carlton Earth Day Celebration: Salt Creek Beach Clean Up From 10am-12, meet down at Salt Creek Beach to help the Ritz clean up the beach, supplies provided.

The Ritz also offers daily Complimentary Eco-Adventures. Every day from 9 to 10 a.m. the Ritz offers a GARDEN TOUR, which tours the site's garden, including the organic fruits, vegetables and herbs that are used by the resort's executive chef and then from 4 to 5 p.m. there is a children's “CONNECT THE DOTS” activity in the Resort's Eco-Adventure Center. The public is always welcome.

And on Sunday, April 21, 10-3pm there is the:

Ocean Institute Earth Day Celebration that starts with a Beach/Harbor Clean-Up from 9-11am. Volunteers will receive FREE admission to the institute for the day! There will also be special activities including crafts and hands-on marine wildlife activities.

And then on the following Saturday, April 27 (and every 4th Saturday of the month), from 8-11am

Dana Point nature staff & docents will be celebrating Earth Day at the regular Nature Interpretive Center/ Headlands Preserve Clean Up.

More detailed information for each of these events can be found on the City calendar on the City's website.
