

Saving our Water Quality One Wetland at a Time

Dana Point Headlands Conservation Area
presents

Science Night

Thursday
September 20th, 2018
6:30pm

NEW LOCATION

Dana Point City Hall – Council Chambers
33282 Golden Lantern
Dana Point, CA 92629

Mo Wise

Irvine Ranch Water District

Saving our Water Quality One Wetland at a Time

Did you know natural wetlands have been almost entirely depleted in southern California? Wetlands provide crucial habitat and environmental services, and are important to improving water quality while using minimal energy and resources.

Learn how artificial wetlands have been implemented into the urban environment to reduce urban runoff that directly affects coastal ecosystem health and diversity of our coastal natural resources.

Mo is the Wetland Scientist in the Natural Treatment Systems department and a native of Dana Point.