

“Tide Pool Octopus”

ARTIST

Susan Marino

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Susan Marino hopes that her paintings will bring joy to all of those that frequently walk the neighborhoods of Dana Point. Her family loves living in Dana Point and enjoys knowing that her artwork would improve a small area and be around for others to enjoy. She feels fortunate to live in such a beautiful spot on the planet. That fact that we are able to see Whales from the Headlands or look at the amazing creatures in the tidepools in this area on a daily basis is the reason why she and her family lives in Dana Point and she enjoys painting it all.
