

“CRUISING DANA POINT HARBOR”

ARTIST

Steve Adam

DESCRIPTION

Coastal Modern Abstract Palm Seascape mixed media painting on canvas. A Harbor scene you can almost smell the salty air, wind blowing, palms swaying, clear illuminated skies, you can hear the lap of the ocean water against the sandy shore and jetties.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Steve Adam grew up with ocean water and salt breezes in his blood, originally from Louisiana he came to Orange County in Dana Point nearly 38 years ago and never left. He is currently a resident of Coastal Laguna Niguel and an owner/operator of his own gallery located in Laguna Beach @ 760 South Coast Hwy.- website (www.steveadamgallery.com). Steve is a self-taught artist, combining limitless imagination and boundless creativity. He is active with multiple charities and has a strong passion for animals, the environment and donating to certain charitable events through his artwork. He exclusively makes his living now showing and selling his artwork to customers visiting his gallery from all over the world. He still shows his work at Timeless Teak in Dana Point.

LOCATION

Pacific Coast Highway and Del Obispo