WORLD CLASS BBQ CHAMPIONSHIP

September 23rd & 24th • Sea Terrace Park

The City of Dana Point is partnering with the Kansas City Barbeque Society (KCBS) to bring a world class barbeque championship to Dana Point. The two-day event will be held in beautiful Sea Terrace Park on Friday, September 23rd and Saturday, September 24th. Competitors from around the country will travel to the shores of Dana Point to participate in a professional competition with top award winners receiving cash prizes.

Saturday, September 24th will be the showcase day starting at 9:00 a.m. featuring music, entertainment, a refreshment garden, food and displays. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Dana Point Chamber of Commerce, the 5th Marine Support Group, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9934, local non-profits and youth groups in Dana Point.

In addition to the professional BBQ competition, the event will also feature a dessert competition. Mr. Arlie Bragg will bring his expertise to Dana Point to oversee the BBQ and dessert competitions. Arlie, a member of KCBS and resident of Joliet, Tennessee, is renowned for his BBQ accomplishments and promoting first class competitions. If you would like to be a sponsor, participant or just have a question, please contact the City's Community Services & Parks Department at (949) 248-3530.
